SCOUTS ASSEMBLE AT GARDEN CENTER FOR ANTI-LITTER DRIVE

Ready for pilgrimage

Scouts lead in clean-up

Girl and Boy Scouts canvassed the Bay-Waveland area Saturday as the final leg of the anti-litter campaign in preparation for today's annual spring pilgrimage of gardens and homes.

Distributing anti-litter sacks to housewives were members of Boy Scout Troops 208 with Laverne Pahlman, leader, 207 and Girl Scout Troops 120, Mrs. J. W. Clark, leader, and 118, Mrs. Richard Stamm, leader. The bags were donated by Joseph Scharff.

Simultaneously a loud speaker was driven around the area by Terry Scaffidi urging citizens to clean up their property for the pilgrimage and fight litter.

Port body membership completed

Approval of the remaining three members needed to complete the new Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission was voted by the board of supervisors Monday upon receipt of Governor Barnett's appointment: H. H. Shottack for the city of Bay St. Louis and Dean James M. Robert for Waveland.

J. Norton Hoas was appointed by Supervisor Charles Levinghouse of Beat 3 as the representative of that district, the law not requiring members to reside in the beat they represent. Beats 1, 2, 4 and 5 members had been appointed early this year and the resolution of the board setting up the commission will now be adopted to formalize its organization.

Miller elected Rotary prexy

J. Hugh Miller was elected president of the Rotary Club for the year commencing July 1 at a meeting last Wednesday night at the home of the retiring president, Thomas J. Garnar.

Thomas O. Logue was chosen vice president with Carl Smith to serve another term as secretary-treasurer.

These three were elected to the board of directors by the membership last week along with Joseph Marochino, David Treutal, Kenneth Pepperdene and Garnar as ex-officio member.

HGH hiring, firing by-law plan is out

The words, "I'll withdraw the motion," by Trustee Hubert Thigpen brought to a close the hectic part, complete with applause and boos, of Tuesday night's Hancock General Hospital Board meeting called for the purpose of amending the board's by-laws so a committee would be responsible for hiring and firing hospital employees.

Only a vote of confidence for hospital administrator Thomas O. Logue, from which Trustee Cornelius Laderer refrained, remained to be done.

Then, while it could not be acted on at the special meeting, it was agreed to set up a grievance committee at the next meeting composed of representatives of the board and the medical staff to look into any employee's complaint and recommend the action the administrator should take.

The tip-off to the highly vocal meeting attended by 41 interested citizens came when Laderer immediately moved for an executive or secret session. This was squelched by board president T. T. Reboul, Jr., who ruled that the by-laws requirement of sessions open to the public made Laderer's motion out of order. To Laderer's comment that it had

MTO influx near County-MTO PIO tells Rotary patrol plan is stymied

A prediction of 3,000 construction workers at NASA's MTO in nine months was voiced yesterday at Rotary's regular meeting by the public information head at Gainesville, Mack Herring. Previously in his talk Herring had brought the membership up to date on what has so far been done in Mississippi, what MTO is being set up to accomplish and rocket prospects of the future. He also said some construction will start about May 1.

The primary goal of MTO, for which $11 million has already been budgeted, is to assist in placing an American on the moon and get him back preferably before the Russians accomplish the same, the audience was told, with a current target date of 1968.

When completed the Hancock County installation will static test the mammoth S-4C rocket with its 7,500,000 pounds of thrust compared to the current baby S-1's 1,500,000. It will also test the S1 stage and these together with the two other components will comprise the 350 foot Saturn V with which NASA officialdom hopes to complete the mission of putting a man on the moon. Herring also cautioned the Rotarians against thinking that MTO would die on the vine when the Saturn project has served its purpose. While still in the drawing board stage, the NOVA space craft designed to place humans on Mars will be tested here if the country finds it can afford this extended effort. The world's greatest authority in this field in Herring's view is Dr. Ernest Stuhlinger and he says this can be accomplished by the 1980's.

Should the NOVA become an actuality, then the northeast part of the test site will be used to static test its propellant components and a reservoir will have to be constructed in that area to provide the water necessary to carry away the heat generated by this even larger engine.

NASA acquires 83 more acres in buffer area

Thirty-two more tracts in the NASA buffer area involving 83.23 acres at a cost of $78,811 were closed out during the last week by the Corps of Engineers real estate office. Only two were easements.

The list includes: Drs. Allen K. Singleton and Glenn Waldrop, .39 acre, $9,200; Francis F. Littlejohn, .15 acre, $385; Charles A. Durbin, .42 acre, $1,025; Mrs. Augustine Grosch and Ethel Cassesi, .26 acre, $525; Manuel C. Breazy, .26 acre, $450; Manile L. Danford, .40 acre, $5,500; James E. McRight, .64 acre, $1,050; Christian M. Johnson, Jr., .24 acre, $600; James Gerdas, .17 acre, $360; Josefine Bernhardt, .24 acre, $615; Virginia Russell, .25 acre, $520; Mary Graffia, .15 acre, $300; Grace Arnold, .15 acre, $300; Anthony Tomas-

Pollypeers

And a very happy first day of spring to one and all - think we can safely state that seldom has the date been so actively anticipated with such eagerness by one and all. Feel though, that we should let you know, the blackberries are in full bloom which is usually indicative of a chilly spell - however, we couldn't officially call last Thursday's coolish spell blackberry winter as it was still winter! We also note that wisteria coronas are belatedly beginning to unfold - (these are usually blossoming in early February) AND good news for garden club members - we've spotted numerous azaleas, first frost hopelessly damaged by freeze after freeze, and a few camellias bursting into brilliant bloom.

As this edition will be on newsstands just about the time visiting pilgrims begin their annual tour we'll extend a warm welcome to one and all and we're keeping our fingers crossed for a lovely sunny day!

Spring spurs recoveries

As the weather continues to improve so does the health of much of the populace. Charlie Mollere was allowed to return home Friday after spending many weeks in Biloxi Veterans Hospital-Mrs. Hamilton Guenard in at home once more after being a patient in Hancock General - Mary (Mrs. Sylvan) Ladner has recovered from a very sore throat and Ruth (Mrs. Al) Landry's laryngitis has just about disappeared. Kitty Mollere is also suffering with 'the thing' but hearing her list medications she has consumed we're certain she must have recovered by now. Larry Smith is also well on the road to recovery after having surgery last week.

Sunday was a big day for Millie and Allen Hickey-after the whole family had been laid low with flu, they were feeling well enough to have their third child, little Paul, christened...Jane, Brewster, the little Molleres and Bootsie went into the Crescent City for the event as Jane is godmother and Dr. Adrien (Buddy) Hava, godfather.

Speaking of Molleres we must compliment Ollie on his colorful 'Dr. Kildare shirt'-it's blue and matches exactly one of the fancy ones in his office.

Pearl and Clyde Peyronian spent a couple of days last week in their Farrar Lane summer home.

Jean (Mrs. Val) Fusch, chairman of the recent spaghetti dinner to obtain funds for the Catholic school bus, asked us to express appreciation to all who donated, worked, attended and otherwise helped make the affair successful.

The Lakesore Garden Club will hold its March meeting and play games at 2 p. m. Thursday at the home of Grge (Mrs. Ed P.) Orrie...her daughter Marion (Mrs. Russell) Elliott is co-hostess. Margie and Sidney Woods are parents once more. A daughter weighing just a fraction over six pounds arrived Friday.

Althea and Sterling Balakst departed via plane for Los Angeles Thursday where they will visit Sterling's mother.

Glad to hear that Little Girl, Mrs. Ruth Ketchum's minute toy Manchester, is on the mend. Mrs. Ketchum is more than pleased by Dr. Aker's treatment of the tiny canine. Her daughter, Clara Lee (Mrs. Albert) Asher has lots to celebrate-not only is she the owner of a brand new small car, she and Albert are moving into a lovely new home on U. S. 90.

A new rash of hupperware parties has broken out in our area-mrs. and Mrs. Russell Gass entertained a group at their vacation home a week ago Monday night and Betty Rose hosted a similar gathering last Monday night.

Col. Axater's tulip and hyacinth beds are almost a traffic hazard-almost every passing automobile slows down to admire their beauty.

Relic found in tree

Lois and Gurne Maurigi made a most interesting and unusual discovery when digging in the stump of a huge oak tree which they had cut down in the yard of their Main Street home. Reposing in the remains was a small pipe bowl in such near perfect repair that the glaze is still visible. It's made of clay fashioned in the shape of a profile and part of a head and research indicates the face is a likeness of King George, III, of England. After failing to discover many facts about its possible origin, Lois wrote an expert in Chicago who replied post haste that it was quite a historical find and was indubitably a trading pipe of the type swapped by early settlers with Indians. It's probable that it was left resting in the crotch of the tree when it was a sapling and there it remained until its accidental discovery. The Maurigis would like to find out more about the antique so if we have any pipe collectors or authorities please call HO 7-5593.

FOUND IN A TREE- Ginger Maurigi, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gurne Maurigi, holds antique clay pipe bowl found by her parents in the trunk of a large oak tree which had been cut in the yard of their Main Street home. The pipe, an effigy of King George, III, of England is thought to have been of the type used by early settlers in trading with Indians.

Complaint dept.

The topic is safety for school children once again-an observer notes extremely hazardous conditions, especially on rainy days, on the Carroll Avenue side of Bay High. School buses are parked on one side, cars on the other and a number of drivers have been seen moving much too fast to stop if a child happened to dart out between buses into the street and as a rule most children run first and think later. It might be well to make that block of Carroll one way at the time school opens and closes and 10 m.p.h. school zone signs would also be a good idea.

More get well wishes go to Mrs. Alton Stieffel who underwent surgery in New Orleans on Monday.

Margaret Bourgeois has moved back into her Broad Street home-she tried living in the Crescent City for several months but must have gotten homesick for Waveland.

Missed usual weekenders Nell and Eddie Bourgeois-they attended a sort of family reunion at the home of E.L. Stieffel and family in Monroe, La., Jane Stieffel and Annamie and Tommy Stieffel were also present.

Apples, grapefruit for health

Marcia Patine is up and about again after a bout with flu-she's drinking apple juice by the pint trying to get to feeling healthy again. Mrs. Alvin Moore is another recuperating from this ailment-she's a grapefruit juice fan.

Rae Rasmussen is more than a little pleased as her star patient, Frank Denima, who has made his home with the Rasmussens for almost four years has been officially released from Veterans' Hospital. However he has chosen to live with Rae and Ras in the Lakesore home instead of returning to New Orleans...she's making the dean into his bedroom as her patients live in the dormitory.

Apologies to Uncle Bud Siller-we insist upon misspelling his name Siller!

Mystery of the week

We're still trying to discover if the large brown pelican is extinct-so far no one has reported seeing same. If anyone should happen to view one of these rare birds please call either your reporter or John McClosky post haste with the information as to where and when it was spotted.

Welcome to Waveland Capt. Frank E. (Hurricane) Clark who is at present remodeling a home on the corner of Bourgeois street for his retirement. Captain Clark who was born in London, England, has led a most adventurous life and is also quite a prolific writer.

Happy anniversary Mr. and Mrs. Beverley Glass who observed their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday.

The stork is hovering over two of our bottle knitters-Jean Longo's next will arrive no later than Friday and Mary Alice Benvenuti is expecting momentarily.

A gala party

It was impossible to count accurately the number of guests attending Carmen and Dan Kirschenbeuter's luncheon Saturday night-but there was a literal mob. A few enjoying roast pig, barbecued chicken, potato salad, green bean and onion salad and a variety of beverages were Jackie and Mickey Korso, Betty Ruiz, Jim Kathmann, Senator and Mrs. Egan, Mamie and Max Gianelloni, Gerri and Sam Blanchard, Helen and Will Bortages, Juanita Guillot, Ruth and Matt Ballatin, Peggy and Floyd Hepting and so on and on.

Animal notes

Wallace Bourgeois is the owner of a most unusual pet - he carries a large black widow spider complete with egg around in an empty olive jar...he'll generously allow anyone to view the shiny black bug, but you're not allowed to shake the bottle as it might damage the egg! Speaking of odd pets, little Joey Griffin has a flying squirrel who refused to sleep in a nest of any material other than white corduroy.

Henry Devalle will be prepared when swimming time rolls around - he's emulating Charles Atlas and concentrating on building the body beautiful exercises. I know this is going to be an (Cont. on Page 8.)

2 simple ways to air condition your house with GAS

If you're planning to build or install central heating, investigate the single GAS unit that heats in winter, cools in summer. You can install it inside or outside the house-water cooled or air cooled-and get the exact size you need. There's nothing to equal it for economy, efficiency and long, trouble-free operation.

If you have a central heating system, it's easy to add-on gas air conditioning. A compact cooling coil can be installed on the furnace or in the main duct... with a foot-proof gas air conditioner located outside the house. Now's the time to plan for thermostatically-controlled fresh air the year-round. Ask for FREE survey and estimate-today!

ST. JOSEPH'S ALTAR - Russell Maurigi poses beside the St. Joseph's Altar he prepared at his home on Main Street this week. It was the first one held here in several years and carries on a tradition in the Maurigi family. His late parents had their first St. Joseph's Altar in Italy in 1907 and when they moved to Bay St. Louis gave their initial one here in 1920.

ELECTRIC COOKING'S NO PUZZLE

ELECTRICITY is the answer to all of your cooking puzzles. For example:

Ten across, CLEAN — Flameless electricity is pure energy — there is nothing to burn. You cook without soot or smoke. You keep your ceilings, curtains, and pots and pans cleaner.

Ten down, COOL — This one's easy. Only electric ovens have six insulated sides to keep heat inside where you want it, not outside barbecuing your kitchen — and you.

Fourteen across, CONVENIENT — No problems here. Regardless of the model you choose, automatic controls do all the "pot watching," give you more time for other things.

So, your puzzle is solved and you stay cool and clean while a convenient electric range does your cooking effortlessly.

JUST LIKE OLD MAN RIVER

If you want a truck that does its work without yelling for attention all the time, buy a "new reliable" Chevrolet.

You have to take care of it; it's a machine. But this isn't a full-time activity. The clear idea is that the truck works for you, not vice versa.

The way to build such a truck is to put more quality into it. For example, Chevrolet doesn't build one type of suspension system for all sizes of trucks. Chevrolet designs suspension systems to fit your need. The light-duty type is strong on comfort. Another kind for heavier trucks stuffs up as you increase your load and vice versa. Make sense?

Conventional pickups have double-wall construction in cabs, doors, lower side panels. Roofs are insulated. Body floors are select wood, not metal. Tailgate chains are wrapped in rubber. If you'd like to examine or drive a new '63 Chevrolet truck, just call us. We'll be right over.

BEER IS A NATURAL

Only nature's light grain comes sparkling, light beer... Mississippi's traditional beverage of moderation — it's just sparkling, delicious.

And naturally, the Brewing Industry in Mississippi is proud of the more than $75 million tax dollars it contributes to the state of Mississippi each year — money that helps support our schools, our hospitals and our parks. In Mississippi, beer belongs, enjoy it.

John has also insisted we correct little Richard Bourgeois' - birth weight - it was nine pounds, three ounces and John feels rather deeply on the subject as he was at the hospital when the baby arrived and helped papa Richard with his first walking.

Rock intra-squad grid play Saturday

It's "chicken or bones" when the St. Stanislaus Reds meet the Blacks in the annual school intra-squad football game Saturday night at 8 p. m. at Rockaway stadium, closing the curtain on the spring practice sessions. The winners of the annual affair will be treated to a chicken supper, while losers will have to settle for a plate of bones.

Opposing head coaches for the game will be Rudy Pinals and Brother Edward, head grid master Billy Murphy and his chief assistant Mike Gallagher will view the contest from the sidelines and will get their first look at many boys in actual game experience.

The spring game concludes more than three weeks of practice. German shepherd puppy, was waiting for them at home.

Essie and Lloyd Hoffman arrived to spend the weekend at their Clermont Harbor home - both are still smiling as brightly as they were on their honeymoon several months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Diebold received a lovely surprise on the occasion of their 43rd wedding anniversary Sunday. A group of friends and neighbors gave them a party at their Charles home.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - Fresh green beds and tender shoots of new grass rapidly obliterating the brown ugliness of winter, children running across the beach attempting to launch multi-colored kites and the soft sound of waves once more lapping against the seawall.

These sessions designed to give new gridsters basic experience and old veterans in making transition from the single wing to the T formation Coach Murphy plans to put into effect after the 1963 season.

3-day boxing card slated next week

Celebrating the first anniversary of the revival of boxing in Bay St. Louis, a three-day invitational tournament will be staged March 28-30 at St. Stanislaus gymnasium. Sponsored by the SSC St. Louis Club, the tournament will feature boxers from Bay St. Louis, Biloxi, McComb and Pascagoula and Houma and New Iberia, La.

About 20 bouts will be scheduled for each of the three nights of the event, first boxing tournament in Bay St. Louis since 1951, the year the Mississippi Activities Assn. dropped high school boxing.

Boxers in smaller and larger weight divisions will compete. Each of the six clubs entered have Golden Gloves champions and runners-up, and the Biloxi and Pascagoula teams can be previewed by local fans over Channel 13 at 10 p.m. Saturday.

Local boxing head Buck Price voiced enthusiasm over the matches, remarking that the Stanislaus gym has been recently remodeled with a large concession stand, increased seating and new dressing rooms.

Officials for the tourney will be announced later along with the master of ceremonies. It is hoped a former world's featherweight titleholder can be lured to Bay St. Louis to referee the opening night card.

Each night's action will begin at 8 o'clock. Present plans call for first-round bouts to be Thursday, semi-finals Friday and finals Saturday night in respective divisions. Bay Boxing Center is expected to enter 15 boys in the tournament and more will be announced next week.

Tiger seniors go 'backwoods' for class play

The Space Age may have invaded Hancock County, but backwoods conditions prevail at Bay High School as Mrs. Merle Little's advanced English class busily prepares for the annual senior play set for production April 5.

Hillbilly Weddin', a comedy in three acts by Roma Gresh, minimizes scientific progress but provides minute-after-minute of delicious laughter and entertainment. Chaotic excitement takes over when hillbillies Ma and Pa Belsnickle start hunting husbands for their six young daughters.

Cast as Ma and Pa are Gail Stewart and Davey Smith. Portraying their daughters are Karen Williams, Christy Torgersen, Sondra Hinson, Janet Strong, Nancy Chatman and Toni White. Neighbors Billy Pahlman and Richard Schaefer are among prime prospects for husbands, while city slicker J. P. Compretta and his overbearing aunt, Kay Dorich, share the merriest. Cousin Gaudier Mayfield and his mountain band are on hand to provide "soft sweet music," and always ready, just in case, is Reverend Sam Cuevas.
